PROGRAM: By GEORGIA HART
"TWO WOMEN WHO MADE A DIFFERENCE."

We all know what a wonderful program GEORGIA HART gives, and we are really excited about the April meeting. Georgia will tell us about two women who made a great difference in their world. She will discuss AUGUSTA EVANS WILSON, the popular Southern writer, author of ST. ELMO, and NAN GRAY DAVIS, an educator, who has Flomaton connections. She will relate how our lives have been affected by these two women, so DON'T MISS THE MEETING! Guests are welcome.

HOSTESSES: Elvira McMillan and Harriet Rushton.

THANKS, DR. McLEOD

We want to thank Dr. Sandra McLeod, president of Jefferson Davis Community College, for presenting much interesting information concerning the Society's Museum Trust Fund and investment of funds which bring dividends for use in perpetuating the museum.

FRANCES GREEN IS APPOINTED

Frances Green graciously accepted an appointment by President Huff to serve as coordinator of the Hostesses. Frances will see that hostesses are signed up for each month, so please cooperate with her in this task.

GET WELL, CAROLINE

How we have missed Caroline Liles, that wearer of many hats, who works so hard on the membership list, copying quarterlies and in other areas of the Society, as well as giving valuable service at Leigh Library. Caroline is recovering from knee surgery, and we hope she will soon be feeling "fit as a fiddle." Our best wishes go out to you, Caroline!
